SET-UP INSTRUCTIONS

1. Tie a knot in the end of your anchor rope leaving a tail approximately 12 inches long.

2. Feed that tail down into the bag and through the grommet.

3. View inside bag.

4. Pile the rope into the bag, coiling the rope will tend to cause tangles.

5. Roll Down top to help keep bag open.

6. Filled Bag.

7. Tie a knot on the outside of the bag. Your anchor rope is now tied into your bag.

USING YOUR DROPIN’ OUT ANCHOR ROPE BAG

Anchor as you normally would.

1. Anchor has been deployed. Line is tied off to the cleat at bow.

2. Pull a little extra rope out of the bag. Wrap the cleat as you would wrap a cleat on the side of your boat.

3. VERY IMPORTANT: Finish with a half hitch over the cleat.

4. Finished tie off.

5. Close the bag by crossing the buckles.

6. Attach a small buoy to the D-ring below the cleat. This will mark your bag and reduce the chance of running over it.

7. When you need to drop out, untie your line from the bow and toss the bag and small buoy over board.

8. Now you are ready to fish.

9. When you are finished for the day, remember to untie the cleat before you refill your bag.
